

RETHINKING HEALTH 2025

HEALTHVISIONS MIDWEST

Overcoming Barriers to Wellness

ReThinking Health is HealthVisions Midwest's annual advocacy event and fundraiser, drawing over 200 healthcare professionals, community leaders, and advocates to address health disparities in Fort Wayne. The 2025 theme, Overcoming Barriers to Wellness, features inspiring stories of resilience, a keynote by nonprofit consultant Mike Stone, and the presentation of the Dignity Award honoring a local health equity champion. Proceeds support HealthVisions' programs for underserved communities and health equity training, helping ensure everyone has a fair opportunity to live a healthier life.
